Experience

Programs and Processing Assistant, The Lansdowne Public Library; Lansdowne, PA Sept. 2014 - present

Presently, I am working at my local library where I assist in processing library materials and office duties. I also work with the programming staff on planning and running library events as well as editing videos and designing flyers for our social media outlets.

Media Intern, Media Mobilizing Project; Philadelphia, PA Sept. 2013 - April, 2014

Media Mobilizing Project is a non-profit organization that uses media to raise awareness of poverty in Philadelphia. As their media intern, my main responsibilities were assisting with editing videos, logging and transcribing footage, and editing photographs for their social media and presentations.

Work Study, Visual Resource Library at the University of the Arts; Philadelphia, PA Sept. 2012 - May 2014

While at school I worked in the VRC and Special Collections branch of the library where I re-shelved books as well as organized and scanned in the slide collection for the website ARTStor.
